THE WHITE PAWN. - This magnificent spec tacle, far surpassing in the gorgeousness of its mise en scene anything ever witnessed in Charleston, will be presented for the first time at our then tre on Thursday night. The Grand Corps de Ballet, led by the accomplished danscuses Mile. Esmeraldi Diani and Mile. Jugusta Sohlke, and reinforced by the old Charleston favorites, the Vane sisters, will constitute such an attraction as is seldom offered to the public in a Southern city. The Macon Telegraph, in commenting upon this piece, says:

FIRST APPEARANCE OF THE VELOCIPEDE IN CHARLESTON .- "What's it?" "Where's it?" "Who's got it?" "Where did it come from?" "Have you seen it?" "There it goes!" "Whoop! don't it fly?"
"Break he reck durreckly." "De debbil in dat same ting." "Confederate cavary on a charge." "Or retreat-ing." "The ghost of Tam O'shanter's mare." "Any other horse would get as thin that eat as little." Such were some of the myriad interrogatories and remarks made by the crowd yesterday on the appearance of a velocipede in the streets of this city. The Savannah Advertiser boasts that Savannah in not behind the world, because somebody has an agency for velocipedes for Georgia and South Carolina. Well, we acknowledge that Charleston is some seconds behind Paris and New York, but she has a velocipede of her own manufacture, and she intends to catch up. The one that created such a sensation yesterday was made by Mr. Duc, an expert tinner, in conjunction with Mr D. B. Haselton. the sewing machine man, and was ridden by Mr. Due through the principal streets, at a rate that would soon reduce horse flesh to the tenuty of the velocipede itself. Mr. Duc was followed, longo intervallo, by a great crowd of men and boys, black and white; and peop e indoors who heard he was coming rushed to the wincews to get a peep at the wonderful horse substitute. The sensation created by the mechanical Rosinante is, however, best Illustrated by the fact that a certain well known young amateur poet was found by his friends in a fainting fit his hand still holding a piece of paper on which were written the following lines: written the following mess.

You wish to rhyme velocipede?
The mother lets the bossy feed.
The swallow skim: the mo-sy mead,
The swallow skim: the mo-sy mead,
The apple bears a glossy seed.
The reinder takes a mossy feed.
The mule results from cross o' breed,
The donkey pines from loss o' feed.

Let those not make you cross to read.

THE CATHOLIC ORPHAN ASYLUMS .- For the first time since their establishment, the two Catholic Omlian Asylums (male and temale) of Charleston are about to appeal to the city government for as de tance. We learn that the good Sisters are comwelled to this step with rejuctance, and on'y under the pressure of sore necessity. The following petition has been very numerously signed by the fracta and well wishers of the Asylums among the tax-payers, and (as copies have been left at the newspaper offices) we doubt not that targe numbers of our humane citizens generally will add their signatures to the memorial.

THE CITY OF CHARLESTON.

To the Honorable the Mayor and Aldermen in Common Council assemble!:

The memorial of the undersigned tax-payers of the city aforesaid, humbly and respectfully showeld, that the sisters of turn Lady of Mercy, a body politico and corporate, instituted for charitable purposes, have been estab ished in this city since 1829, from which period down to the present day twey have been engaged in ateraling the sick and maintaining and training the orphan. Soon after the have been engaged in atending the sick and maintaining and training the orphan. Soon after the establishment of their order in this city, they opened a female orphan assum which has ever since been filled to its entire capacity. This assium they have been enabled to keep up only by the most stromuous exertions on their part, frequently laboring under the most difficult embarrasaments. And they have had to depend for its support chiefly upon their own efforts, and the charitable donations of the Ca holic citizens of Charleston.

As long as there was room for another, no orphan ever applied in vain for admission to their asylum. They have clothed, ied, comforted and trained upon an average, sixty-five every year from the foundation an average, sixty-five every year from the foundation of their institution to this day. At no time have of their institution to this day. At no time have there ladies had under their care and tuition less than fifty of these little ones, while at other times the number of their little inmates has exceeded seventy-

Besides this female crohan asylum, a boy's orphan asylum has been opened in Cannon-street, contain-ing twenty-one boys. This was established June 5, 1967

1867.
The present year there are maintained in these two asylums eighty-six orphans, male and female.
Your petitioners, as introductory to the prayer they have now to make, do not propose to address to your honorable body as argument, but simply to lay offere you facts, the best argument for an enlightened fore you facts, the best argument for an enlightened and impartial mind.

This is the first occasion that the claim of these ladies for municipal aid has ever been brought betore Council, and your petitioners hope that it may be favorably considered.

They would not now obtrude on your honorable body, but the reduced state in which these ladies have been left by various adverse circumstruces during and since the war, imperatively demand relief—such relief is now indispensable to them

Finally, your petitioners pray that in the annual appropriation by the city for the relief of the orphun, a cervain sum may be allowed this charitable body, that they may be encouraged in the holy work they have undertaken, and that in the administration of our city affairs fair, equal and impartial justice may be dealt out allie to all of its citizens. And your memorialists, as in duty bound, will ever pray, &c.
